

The Pôtoň Theatre offers a residence in Slovakia

The open call for a 7-day-long residential stay within the frame of EAT project – Europe Art Touch is intended for professional creators from the contemporary theatre scene from Czech Republic, Hungary and Poland, who currently work on a new performing arts project.

Location: Centre of Arts and Creativity, Bátovce, Slovakia

Centre of Arts and Creativity is an interdisciplinary platform for creating and presenting contemporary arts, especially in the field of performing arts. The residence area is situated in the country, at the outskirts of a small village in pleasant and peaceful surrounding. It ensures a complete spatial offer: accommodation with a kitchen and rehearsal spaces in the same building. Close to the Bátovce village there are three smaller cities: Levice, Šahy and Banská Štiavnica. Štiavnica especially is a scenic medieval town with a vivid cultural life. Budapest (110 km), Bratislava (160 km) and Nitra (60 km) and not far either.

Date of the residence: 27th November 3^d December 2011

Maximum number of persons: 7

Pôtoň Theatre offers:

- Studio space – (WxLxH) 5 x 10 x 3 m, dark, black dance floor possible
- Accommodation for the artists right in the building of the Centre (two rooms with separate bathrooms, kitchen, dining room)
- Light and sound equipment, by agreement (light disposition in Studio is max 12 x 2 kW)
- Contribution for a group up to 500 €.

Pôtoň theatre expects from artists:

- Final public display (performance) of the project – work in progress
- To pay their own living expenses - food and transportation, including the transport of necessary equipment

Deadline for applications: 25th October 2011

Results to be announced: 31st October 2011
